RAIL EXECUTIVES AND EMPLOYEES BOTH CLAIM VICTORY IN DECISION

Abrogation Of National Agreement Ordered By Board

BOTH SATISFIED

Railways and Workers To Get Together To Plan New Set.

Chicago, April 15.—Railways and railway employees each were claiming victory today in the decision handed down by the U. S. Labor Railway Labor Board late yesterday in which abrogation of existing national agreements regulating working conditions on American railroads on July 1, was ordered.

The railways asserted that the decision recognized the inequalities in the present agreement which the roads all along have contended imposed a burden upon them. They called the decision a "substantial step toward relief of the present situation."

Union leaders contended that the decision was in their favor in that the labor board announced that it will promulgate reasonable rules after July 1, which will include groups of workers not included in the present agreements. They were pleased also over the provision of the decision which permits the workers to choose their own representatives for conferences to be held with no hindrance to selection of officials of the national unions.

The decision of the board is that the present agreements shall not extend beyond July 1, but that in the interim the separate railroads and their employees shall confer and agree among themselves upon such rules as they can agree upon.

The board will be informed of the various agreements and disagreements resulting from these conferences, and as soon as possible after July 1, will promulgate "such rules as it determines just and reasonable." Whatever the new rules are, they will be effective as of July 1, 1921.

In promulgating its decision the board reviewed the claims of the contending parties and found merit in the arguments of each side. Certain rules the board declared, "are unduly burdensome to the carriers and should in justice be modified." Other rules, it was said, might well be modified in the interest of employees.

GOVERNOR MAKES FIVE SELECTIONS FOR STATE DEPARTMENTS

Columbus, O., April 15.—Governor Davis is credited with having selected five of his cabinet provided for in the Dunn bill, reorganizing state departments, scheduled to become effective as law on July 1.

The bill provides for eight state departments.

The governor is understood to have made the following selections:

L. J. Taber, Barnesville, master of the state game, to be director of the agricultural department; Percy Tetlow, Columbiana county stationer and of the United Mine Workers of America and former state representative, to be director of industrial relations; State Highway Commissioner L. C. Herrick, to be director of public works and highways; Floyd E. Waite, Cleveland, secretary to the governor, to be director of commerce; State Superintendent of Public Instruction Vernon M. Riegel, to be director of the department of education.

CHURCH CONFERENCE OPENS FRIDAY WITH COUNTY PROBLEMS

Representatives were present from almost every church community in the county, at the Greene County Conference of the Ohio Federation of Churches in session at the First Methodist Church, this city, Friday.

Dr. C. W. Brugh, evangelistic field secretary of the Ohio Synod of the Reformed Church was in charge of the conference. Dr. Brugh is one of the best posted men in the state on the religious conditions of the various counties in the state as he was closely connected with the surveys made and the maps that show the church and unchurched communities.

After some general facts revealing conditions in the counties the map of Greene County and the study of various communities occupied the attention of the conference.

The Rev. Dr. G. C. Foltz pastor of the Methodist Church of Bowersville, was chosen chairman and Rev. B. E. Wright, pastor of the Methodist church of New Burlington was elected Secretary of the Conference.

Dr. C. W. Brugh will give an address at the evening meeting of the Greene County Church Conference, on "General Religious Needs in Greene County," and "How to Meet Them." Everyone is invited to attend.

VIVIANI'S VISIT TO U. S. FAILS OF CHIEF AIMS

Mission Embraced Three Main Objectives Which Have Been Killed.

MESSAGE IS BLOW

President Disposes Of Two Propositions In Congress Talk

Washington, April 15.—This week's events in Washington led inevitably to the conclusion today that the mission of Rene Viviani, France's special envoy to the United States has been well nigh a complete failure.

M. Viviani came to the United States ostensibly to "pay France's respects" to the new administration. What he really came for was outlined in the series of private discussions which he held with officials of the new administration and influential members of the senate foreign relations committee. His mission as thus outlined embraced three objectives.

1.—To persuade the United States if possible to enter the league of nations.

2.—To prevent the passage of the Knox resolution declaring an end to the state of war between the United States and Germany.

3.—To obtain in support of the United States in forcing upon Germany the reparations settlement agreed upon by the allied premiers in London and Paris.

President Harding neatly disposed of the two first propositions in his message to congress on Tuesday. He informed M. Viviani and the world that the United States can never become a member of the existing league of nations and he advised the passage of the Knox resolution without that famous section five which was the only thing which made it palatable to the French. That section five would have put the United States on record as concerning itself with future European quarrels which was exactly what France desired. When the purpose of section five was explained to M. Viviani in one of the conferences with administration leaders, the eloquent Frenchman, with a characteristic gesture, exclaimed: "Viviani! It is as good as the league of nations."

The third object of M. Viviani's mission—obtaining American support in the reparations—has been a partial failure. The ex-premier frankly wanted the administration to come out and flatly endorse the reparations settled upon by the allied premiers, which would make Germany pay indemnities of approximately $55,000,000,000 and a 12 1-2 percent tax on her exports.

This Harding administration has declined to do. So far President Harding and Secretary of State Hughes have confined themselves to a statement that Germany is morally responsible for the war and must pay "just" reparations. Beyond that they have refused to go. What constitutes "just" reparations is a subject of dispute. The allies say $55,000,000,000 and 12 1-2 percent of Germany's exports constitute "just" reparations. E. M. Baruch and other American members of the reparations commission in Paris estimate it at more nearly $15,000,000,000.

The first result of M. Viviani's failure to enlist more ardent support from the United States was seen by officials today in the tone of the French answer to Secretary Hughes's note on the island of Yap and other mandates. This note officials characterized today as "gratifying" and "highly satisfactory."

While France did not openly take sides with America against Japan in this Yap controversy, officials saw in Premier Brand's offer to renew the matter before the next meeting of the allied supreme council a tacit admission, at least, that the American position is one of soundness and fairness.

France is more keenly desirous of American sympathy and support than she is of Japan's having Yap. In the opinion of diplomats in Washington, France can be counted on to support the American contention that America must be considered in the disposition of the fruits of victory.

EXPLOSION DAMAGES HUNDREDS OF HOMES

Randolph, Mass., April 15.—Several hundred houses were slightly damaged, scores of persons were thrown from their beds and slightly injured, and hundreds were stricken with panic early today by explosions that wrecked the plant here of the United States Fireworks Company.

PRESIDENT HARDING READS FIRST MESSAGE TO CONGRESS

AUTHORITIES OF STATE DO NOT WANT REMOVAL

Deny Contemplating Taking Any Official From Office.

INSPECT OHIO CITIES

Condition At Lorain Said To Be Getting Attention.

Columbus, Ohio, April 15.—Although admitting that state dry inspectors under the direction of State Prohibition Commissioner Parker, are inspecting conditions relative to enforcement of the state dry laws at Lorain and other Ohio municipalities, state authorities today denied that any immediate action looking toward the removal of municipal officials has been decided upon.

Officials in the office of State Prohibition Commissioner Parker, who held identity of the inspectors operating in the various municipalities, explaining that such publicity, in all probability, would defeat the purpose of the investigations.

The governor's office made no comment on the situation other than to state that there is "nothing to give out."

One state official, who refused to be quoted, connected with dry law enforcement, intimated that if the investigation at Lorain discloses evidence of corruption on the part of any municipal authorities prompt action will be instituted with a view to ousting such officials, or officials from office.

This state official states that no action relative to the Lorain situation is expected to be taken this week.

He said the inspectors may not submit their report before late this week or early next week. If any action is taken against Lorain officials he said, it will be after the inspectors report has been received and carefully considered.

VOTE ON STANDING COMMITTEES NOW BEGUN BY LEAGUE

Resolution In Favor Of Birth Control Fails On Vote

Cleveland, O., April 15.—Voting on the reports of the seven standing committees of the League of Women Voters is the first order of business to be taken up by the convention today. The result of the vote will determine the program to be adopted for the ensuing year.

Resolutions to call upon the president to lead the world in disarmament action, championed by Mrs. Catz who presided at yesterday's afternoon session were first amended, then adopted unanimously and with great cheering.

Reports made by Mrs. Edward P. Costigan, chairman of the food and supply committee gave rise to hot opposition and debate. They seem loath to put the packing industry in to the hands of centralized powers like the railroads and the government. The gavel struck—and the discussion was closed until it comes to vote today.

The resolution in favor of birth control failed to get consideration on the convention floor—since it required a two thirds vote. Plans were made yesterday for an unofficial delegation to leave for Columbus at the close of the convention to urge the governor and state legislators to secure more adequate appropriations for the care of the state's feeble minded.

BOYS FLEE REFORMATORY
Greendale, Ky., April 15.—Six boys ranging in age from 15 to 17 years, escaped from the receiving company dormitory at the Kentucky School of Reform here. This was the first escape from the school in two months.

In his first message to Congress President Harding definitely rejected the League of Nations and outlined his plans for peace with the countries of Europe. The President appeared before the joint session and in a firm voice read his suggestions for the correction of existing and domestic conditions. The entire Cabinet listened to the President's speech.

Mrs. Harding and Mrs. Coolidge were present. The galleries were packed. Considerable applause punctuated the telling points, the strongest demonstration being made when the League of Nations was thrown into the discard. The illustration shows the President delivering his address. In the chairs to the extreme left are Vice-President Coolidge and Speaker Gillett, of the House.

Robbers Escape With Half Million In Worthless Checks

Three Armed Men Hold Up Messengers On Train In Chicago Friday, and Make Getaway With Satchels Containing Checks.

Chicago, April 15.—Checks said to be worth half a million dollars were stolen today when three armed bandits held up an Illinois Central suburban train within the city limits of Chicago.

The checks were taken from three messengers for the Chicago Clearing House, who were on their way to "clear" with several suburban banks. Although valueless to the banks, the loss of the checks will cause confusion and probably some loss to the banks. One passenger aboard the train was shot at but not injured by the bandits.

The messengers boarded the train at Randolph street. At the next stop the bandits, evidently tipped off to the presence of the messengers aboard the train, got aboard and took seats behind the passengers.

Just before the train reached Twenty Second street, the bandits pulled guns and commanded everyone in the car to hold up their hands. They then grabbed the satchels containing the checks, pulled the bell cord and leaped from the train as it slowed down. They escaped in a taxicab that apparently was waiting for them.

As they left the car one passenger made a move as though he would stop them and one of the bandits fired a shot at him.

Detectives were sent out to search for the bandits.

LEADER OF GANG AND TWO OTHERS RAY THE PENALTY

Are Hanged In Cook County Jail Early On Friday.

Chicago, April 15.—Sam Cardinella, gang leader who planned but never personally executed scores of crimes, according to the police and Sam Ferrara and Joseph Costanzo, "stick up" men, who killed during the robbery of a bakery, were hanged in the County Jail shortly after 10 o'clock this morning.

The three men went to their death at the same time and from the same scaffold. It was the first instance in the history of Cook county of three men being hanged at the same time.

The original plan had been to hang Cardinella separately and the two others a half hour later but at the last minute the plans were revised.

Cardinella, considered the most hardened of the three, collapsed as the death march began.

WARRANT NOW OUT FOR NEW JERSEY MAN CHARGING BIGAMY

Suit For Divorce Will Be Filed By Wife Number One.

Jersey City, N. J., April 15.—Just as Herbert Thornton Andrews, the twice married but undivorced young stock broker, thought he had extricated himself from a "deuce of a pickle," that's what he smilingly called the expose of his life with two wives under the same roof—the arm of the law reached out for him and today he found himself confronted by:

1.—A warrant charging him with bigamy and perjury, issued by the prosecuting attorney of Greenwich, Conn.

2.—A suit for divorce to be filed at Trenton, N. J., by wife No. 1 today.

3.—Ouster from his triangular "love nest" in the apartment house on the Hudson boulevard here.

4.—Close investigation of his marital affairs by the local city authorities and the department of justice.

Andrews spent the night with wife No. 2—the pretty 25 year old blonde ex-stenographer whom he married three months ago—at a hotel in Newark, N. J.

ALL FOREIGN SHIPS WILL BE AFFECTED

Washington, April 15.—Foreign ships with cargoes of liquor bound for foreign ports, but stopping in American harbors, will not be affected by regulations being drawn by the treasury department in accordance with the ruling of the department of justice that foreign liquors in transit in the United States are in violation of the Volstead Act. The secretary said yesterday, that there would be strict enforcement of the law against transshipment of foreign liquors through the United States.

TRIPLE ALLIANCE CANCELS STRIKE CALLED FOR FRIDAY BY ELEVENTH HOUR ORDER

EXPECT SENATE CONFIRMATION OF COL. HARVEY

Similar Action On Herrick Nomination Awaited.

THREATEN RUMPUS
Democrats Opposed to Harvey Because of Late Attitude.

Washington, April 15.—Confirmation by the senate of the nomination of Colonel George Harvey as ambassador to London is expected today.

The senate probably will take similar action on the nomination of Myron T. Herrick as American ambassador to Paris.

Some Democratic senators are threatening to stir up a rumpus over Colonel Harvey because of his uncompromising opposition to the league of nations covenant, and his sharp criticisms of former President Wilson.

As the Harvey nomination will be considered in closed executive session, Republican leaders predict speech making of Harvey's Democratic opponents will be short lived before empty galleries.

Their program is to have the senate foreign relations committee at its meeting today report favorably both the Harvey and Herrick nominations and then to have them confirmed soon afterward.

Aside from informal discussion of plans for early repassage of the Knox peace resolution, it is not considered likely that the committee will take any action with respect to it at today's meeting.

Resumption of debate on the Corbinian treaty in the senate today with Senators Johnson of California, Poinexter of Washington and Lenroot of Wisconsin, voicing opposition to ratification will be interrupted by a closed executive session to consider nominations and probably by a renewal of the Democratic fight against the Republican program to apportion ten Republicans and six Democrats to each of the ten major senate committees.

CONFERENCE FAIL TO SETTLE DISPUTE

Akron, O., April 15.—Conferences held today between traction men and employers failed to settle the wage problem which threatens to tie up the traction system here May 1.

The company demands the men accept a reduction in wages but refuses to make a definite statement as to the extent of the cut.

Last year the cars were tied up for eleven days because of a wage disagreement.

Perjury Indictments Are Given In McGannon Case

Four More Implicated—Presentments Are Mounting To High Figures—Principal Witness For State Indicted.

Cleveland, O., April 15.—With the return of four additional perjury indictments late yesterday afternoon, the total of presentments by the county grand jury growing out of the McGannon murder trials is mounting to high figures.

In addition to Judge McGannon, defendant, Miss May B. Neely, principal state witness at his first trial, and Charles Burke and Edward J. Allen, reporters, J. H. Gass, a state witness at the first trial and Charles H. Seiver, Guy E. Dwyer and Louis Ross, defense witnesses, were also indicted. Two others had previously been indicted, one entering a plea of guilty.

Miss Neely and Burke voluntarily surrendered, entered pleas of not guilty, and gave bond. Allen, a reporter on the News, was arrested at the office of that paper, and also pleaded not guilty and was held under bond.

Coincident with the arrest of Burke he entered suit against Judge McGannon in common pleas court asking for $2,000 alleged to be due him for "services." These services are alleged to have been the preparation of his case for the second trial generally, but more especially the arrangement of a change of front on the part of Miss Neely.

CONVICTION IS UPHELD

Olympia, Wash., April 15.—The State Supreme Court here handed down a decision upholding the conviction of seven alleged members of the Industrial Workers of the World, convicted of second-degree murder in connection with the Centralia Armistice Day deaths, and refusing to grant a new trial.

CHURCH DELEGATES NAMED
Owensboro, Ky., April 15.—With its adjournment, the Owensboro Presbyterian closed its spring session of three days here, Rev. A. O. Barbe, of Greenville, and E. B. McEuen, of Owensboro, were selected to be commissioners to the Cumberland General Assembly in Greenfield, Mo., May 19.

STATE MAY TAX INCOMES
Lansing, Mich., April 15.—A tax of 10 percent on all incomes above $40,000 is provided in a state income tax law introduced in the Upper House of the Michigan Legislature. Following the war he engaged in Exemptions identical with those of newspaper work, serving as an editor in Philadelphia, Harrisburg and Reading, Penn.

CASHIER OF BANK USES REVOLVER ON GANG OF BANDITS

Fatally Shoots One, Wounds Two And Captures Fourth

Chicago, April 15.—One bandit was killed, two were wounded and a fourth captured during an attempted robbery of the Cicero State bank in Cicero, a suburb. The attempted robbery occurred shortly after 10 o'clock.

Six armed men entered the bank and herded S. B. Witkowski, cashier and five other employees into a vault. They then scooped several thousand dollars from a teller's cage and started to leave.

Witkowski seizing a revolver that was kept in the vault dashed after the bandits, shot down one, wounded two others and captured a fourth. The other two escaped. All of the money was recovered.

RODE WITH SHERIDAN.
Omaha, Neb., April 15.—Major Weidner Harvey Sperr, 87 years old, said to have been the last surviving member of General Sheridan's escort on his ride from Winchester to the battle of Cedar Creek, is dead at his home in Council Bluffs, Iowa. He was engaged in the war he engaged in Exemptions identical with those of newspaper work, serving as an editor in Philadelphia, Harrisburg and Reading, Penn.

J. THORB CHARTERS APPOINTED ACTING MANAGER OF XENIA OVER AUDITOR ZELL

Lively Session Of City Commission Results Thursday Night

MEMBERS DIVIDED

Forty Applications Received for Manager's Job; None Selected.

J. Thorb Charters, President of the City Commission, is now acting City Manager of Xenia.

Mr. Charters' appointment came after more than an hour's deliberation on the part of the Commission members at the regular meeting Thursday night, and after unsuccessful attempts on the part of different factions in the Commission to name City Auditor T. H. Zell or Frank Jackson, former County Sheriff as temporary Manager.

The resignation of City Manager Kenyon Riddle, which had been tabled since the last meeting, was formally accepted at the Thursday night meeting. Mr. Riddle is already located in Middletown, where he is that city's first Manager, but he was present for the Commission meeting Thursday night.

The question of supplying the vacancy was taken up after all business had been disposed of. Mr. Charters announcing that he had received applications from probably 40 candidates for the position. Commissioner Frazer then moved that City Auditor Zell be appointed temporary manager at a salary of $3,600 a year, and his motion was seconded by Commissioner DeHaven. It was found, however, in Section 91, of the City Charter, that it would be impossible to combine the offices.

Commissioner Whalen moved, as a test vote, that Frank Jackson, be appointed City Manager at least temporarily, and the motion lost. Commissioners Whalen and Fisher, voting for such an appointment, and Commissioners Charters, Frazer and DeHaven casting their votes against it. Commissioner Frazer's motion that Mr. Clark of Hillsboro a candidate for the position, be appointed, did not get a second.

Commissioner Charters then moved that Mr. Zell be appointed temporary Manager and Miss Helen Dillingham, who is in the Auditor's office, as temporary Auditor. The motion was advanced as a test vote after being seconded by Commissioner Frazer and carried by a vote of three to two. Commissioners Whalen and Fisher voting against it. The proposition lost, however, when it was found impossible to get the necessary four votes, to pass an ordinance drawn on this motion on its first reading, in order to make it effective at once. The motion by Commissioner DeHaven that Commissioner Charters be appointed Manager for the first two weeks, was passed by a three to two vote. Commissioners Whalen and Fisher voting against it. The motion of Commissioner Frazer that Mr. Zell's salary be fixed at $3,600 as Auditor was seconded by Commissioner DeHaven, and passed by a three to two vote, with Commissioners Whalen and Fisher voting nay, but an ordinance drawn up on this motion lost, when a motion to suspend the rules and pass the ordinance on its first reading did not secure the necessary four votes, the vote being 3 to 2.

Under the plan of having a member of the Commission as acting

Manager, Mr. Zell will do all of the active work of the Manager and Commissioner Charters, Frazer and DeHaven throughout the controversy declared that since he would do the work he should be compensated by either having his salary as Auditor temporarily raised, or else by being voted the acting Managership with the Manager's salary.

Because the necessary four votes could not be secured to waive the time element in the ordinance placed on the first reading raising the Auditor's salary in order to compensate him for this extra work, the increase can not become effective for six weeks. The Commission will vote on the ordinance on its second reading at the next meeting after which 30 days are required before it becomes effective.

The money raised by the local Chapter will go forward to the education of a foreign girl that has been taken under the wing of the Catherine Greene Chapter and who is studying at the Shaufler school in Cleveland. At the completion of her education the girl will be sent out to the settlement districts to aid in the education of other immigrant children. The sum of money needed for the girl's education is $900 the course taking three years, the Chapter furnishing $300 each year for this purpose. The $300 that was raised this year is the second amount raised by the Chapter. The method used by the members of the Chapter the presentation of the play is the first of its kind that was ever employed and will be the means of raising the money next year. The Chapter's success in its plans were the main topic of the meeting of the members held at the home of Mrs. Dylver Belden on North Galloway street.

The reports of the members who attended the State Conference held recently at Toledo were given at the meeting. The reports were given by the State Regent, Mrs. William M. Wilson, State Secretary, Mrs. William H. McGervey and the Chapter's delegate, Mrs. A. C. Messenger.

Four names of prospective members were given at the meeting Wednesday, and will be voted on at the May meeting of the Chapter. The election of officers will be the feature of the May meeting.

Hostesses for the meeting Wednesday were Mrs. Belden, Mrs. Austin M. Patterson and Miss Margaret Steele.

THE NEW BUICK IS A REAL 1921 MODEL

The Buick which you buy today is a real 1921 Model. It embraces not only the basic engineering which has made Buick famous, but all the improvements, developments and refinements which the most thorough and exacting tests up to this time have proven worth while.

Changing the color of the paint on a 1920 Model does not make it a 1921 Model, nor does putting a lot of "gimcracks" on the dash have that result. It must go deeper than that.

We learn improved methods of carburation, of oiling; we learn that certain steels are better for certain parts of the car, than which have been in general use. We find methods of improving the electrical equipment and so on down the line.

So when you buy a 1921 Buick you get not only all the features which have made of it a world-famous car, but you get an up-to-the-minute model, one of the very few obtainable.

CAR OWNERS—Now is the time to have your car gone over and put in shape. Our Repair Department will give you the best service; only the best Mechanics employed, and with our labor charges reduced to you, you will save money by bringing your car to us for your repairs and supplies.

Some FACTS About

Here are authentic figures from the Ford factory at Detroit. They show you just how many Ford cars and trucks have been built each month since January 1, 1921 and how many have been sold to retail customers, in the United States.

	Produced	Delivered to Retail Customers
JANUARY	29,883	57,208
FEBRUARY	35,305	63,603
MARCH	61,886	87,221
Total Production	127,074	Total Retail Sales 208,032

showing that actual sales for the first three months of 1921 exceeded production by 80,958 Ford cars and trucks

April requisitions already specify 107,719 additional cars and trucks and the estimated April output of the factory and assembly plants combined calls for only 90,000!

These facts clearly show that the demand for Ford products is growing much faster than manufacturing facilities to produce and were it not for the dealers' limited stocks which are now being rapidly depleted, many more customers would have been compelled to wait for their cars. It will be only a matter of weeks, therefore, until a big surplus of orders will prevent anything like prompt deliveries.

If you would be sure of having your Ford car or truck when you want it you should place your order now. Don't delay. Phone us or drop us a card.

BOY ON SKATES IS STRUCK BY AUTO; SEVERELY BRUISED

Dwight Akeley, 13, pupil at McKinley Junior High School, purchased a new pair of roller skates.

Today the skates are lying idle at the home of the lad on Nicholas Avenue, while their little owner is in bed with his face swathed in bandages.

The skates caused all the trouble. While sailing merrily along on his new rollers, oblivious of traffic, Dwight was struck by an automobile driven by a Mr. Peele, of near Xenia, at the corner of Detroit and Second streets. Both parties to the accident claimed they did not see the other.

The lad was picked up and taken to the McClellan Hospital, where Dr. Rayburn McClellan, found he had sustained severe cuts on the cheek, forehead and lip. Nine stitches were taken in the wounds.

Dwight is the son of Mrs. Oscar Evans of Nicholas Avenue, where he was taken after his wounds were dressed. His condition is not serious, and he is recovering from the lops of blood and shock, quickly.

TRUCK AND AUTO COLLIDE; INJURIES ARE ONLY MINOR

Robert Hosier, driver of the George E. Spencer Fertilizer Company truck, was cut about the face, when the truck and the machine driven by Geo. N. Perrill, County Commissioner, collided on the Columbus pike Wednesday afternoon.

The truck ran off into the ditch and rolled over, Hosier receiving cuts on the lip and head. Trim Squires, and little John Spencer, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Spencer, the other occupants of the truck were unhurt.

The Xenia section of the Wellesley Club of this district has the pleasure of announcing a program reception for Saturday evening, April 23. The program will be one of unusual merit and one in which Xenia may feel especial pride. Mr. Ridgely Torrence will read his comedy "The Rider of Dreams," and some of his poems, and Miss Davidson will sing some of her own compositions.

Mr. Torrence has recently been engaged to read in Dayton and Chicago. Both he and Miss Davidson are most generously donating their services on this occasion, the proceeds of which are for the Wellesley Centennial Endowment Fund.

A reception will follow the program. Mrs. Mildred Prugh will open her home on East Church street for the affair. Tickets (price $1.00) may be reserved by calling Miss Santmyer West Third street or Miss Trebein, 125 North Detroit street, and must be secured before the date of the performance. No tickets will be sold at the door.

ARE HOSTESSES TO DELIGHTFUL PARTY

Mrs. James A. Kelly and Mrs. James E. Kelly were hostesses at another charming affair, when they entertained a company of guests at the home of Mrs. James A. Kelly at a bridge luncheon, as a compliment to Miss Leslene Baldrige, of Xenia, Texas, the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Chalmers Murphy.

The simple decorations of the Kelly home were very attractive, lovely pink roses being used in profusion in the dining and living rooms.

Covers were laid for twenty four guests for luncheon, which was followed by bridge, the game being enjoyed through the remainder of the afternoon.

The out of town guests for the affair were Miss Baldrige, Mrs. Whitmore and Mrs. Max Whitmore, of Dayton.

Mrs. James A. Kelly and Mrs. James E. Kelly will be hostesses to a dance to be given at the Elk's Club on Friday evening, given for the pleasure of Mr. and Mrs. Robert N. Adair of Indianapolis.

SLEEPING SICKNESS IS ON INCREASE IN THIS STATE

That sleeping sickness as a disease is on the increase in this state is gathered from a report just made by Dr. U. G. Murrell, of Wilmington, chief of the state bureau of vital statistics.

The report shows that 39 cases of sleeping sickness were reported in Ohio during the month of January, 1921, as compared with only four cases for the month of January 1920. During the year 1919, there were 28 deaths due to sleeping sickness, and 120 accredited to the same disease in 1920. In the year 1920, 62 of the deaths were males and 48 females and 116 were white and four colored.

Deaths are found due to the disease, according to Dr. Murrell's report, from every age from one year to 84 years, which shows the disease is no respecter of age. The greatest number of deaths however occurred of people between the ages of 35 and 39, there being 15 and next in order from 25 to 29, there being 14 between these ages. Eleven victims of the disease were over 60 years of age, there being two men and nine women.

The disease seems to prevail the strongest during the winter months the records last year show a decrease from March until October, and an increase from October until the end of the year. There were four deaths in January 1920; 20 in February; 29 in March; 24 in April; 14 in May; seven in June; six in July; one in August; six in September; one in October; two in November and six in December. Twenty six of the victims during the last year were under 15 years of age. Among the other victims 30 different occupations were represented, with farming predominating, there being 10.

One death from anthrax in Licking County, and one from Pellagra from Cincinnati during January, 1921, are indicated by the report. There were 6,160 deaths altogether in that month as compared with 6,864 for January 1920. There were 2,237 deaths reported from the city and 2,923 from the rural districts during the first month this year.

Three people died during January, who were more than 100 years of age, according to the death certificates received. One from Guernsey county was 100 years, three months and 25 days one from Carroll county, was 100 years and 20 days old, and one from Bellaire was 104 years, 11 months and 15 days old.

ELIMINATE 'OWL' CARS AT AKRON, IS SAID

Akron, O., April 15.—Night owls in this city will have to walk home or take a taxi after Saturday night. N. O. T. officials announce that because of a big reduction in passengers carried, all cars will be eliminated after 1 o'clock.

The announcement of the company has brought protests from all along the line. Council will consider the question next Tuesday night and members of the county commissioners have been appealed to by representatives of the merchants association. Efforts are being made to have the company change its plans of curtailment.

Fake Evans Triple Phosphates With Meals Gain Several Pounds of Solid Stay-There Flesh

In one month's time EVANS' TRIPLE PHOSPHATES puts on several pounds of solid red blooded flesh and changes your weak, run-down, nervous tired body into a strong, vigorous, robust one or money back.

Of course medical men are surprised and many are all unbelievers, but the fact is evident to every up-to-date pharmacist that Evans' Triple Phosphates will produce flesh without violent methods, face creams, daily massage or beauty torture.

In order to assimilate the nourishing food this people daily take into the body and turn it into healthy, red blood corpuscles, the nerves that control the process of digestion and assimilation must be put in first-class shape, and that is one of the first things Evans' Triple Phosphates does.

Evans' Triple Phosphates comes in small tablet form; a ten days' treatment in each box, and one month's treatment is guaranteed to increase your weight at least several pounds, and in ten days make you feel like a new being, full of ambition, vigor and a desire to accomplish things.

Even though Evans' Triple Phosphates works wonders in all cases of nervous, digestive and blood troubles don't take it unless you really desire to put on flesh, gain weight. adv

MR. HARRIS'S FICTION IN THE PREVAILING MODE.

The enthralling serial narrative with which a prisoner in the Buffalo jail has been entertaining the police of that city for several days is now admitted by him to be unsupported by facts. This, unfortunately, is a fatal lack in a narrative of the description he attempted, for he had asserted he knew all about the murder of Mr. Elwell, the celebrated bridge player who was mysteriously shot in his celebrated New York apartment while arrayed in his celebrated pajamas a year ago next June.

The prisoner (name of Harris) told an exceedingly plausible story, and one that was bound to intrigue the police. He was strolling along a New York street in company with a literary friend (possibly a magazine editor), when a car containing a beautiful blond woman, obviously belonging to the best New York society, pulled up to the curb. Beckoning Mr. Harris and friend to approach she introduced herself as Mrs. Fairchild and inquired if they had time to go with her a few blocks and croak a gentleman for her. Having nothing urgent on for the evening Mr. Harris and friend professed themselves charmed to be of service and entered the car which purred on in the luxurious way literary cars have.

Mrs. Fairchild explained the gentleman she desired to have croaked was Mr. Elwell, a friend of hers, and the style she wanted it done in was worth $5,000, which is understood to be the top price for croakings in New York, and marked Mr. Elwell as belonging to the highest circles. The lady then gave Mr. Harris and friend $50 apiece on account, and having shown them Mr. Elwell's residence took a courteous leave. Mr. Harris and literary friend returning on a night other than the one on which Mr. Elwell was shot, waited in the hall until he had put on his pajamas and shot him with a revolver other than the one he was shot with. That was Mr. Harris's story, and it struck the police as being highly regular. Anyway they were regularly baffled by it.

Unfortunately the story wasn't true. There was no Mrs. Fairchild, no purring car, no $50. The loss of Mrs. Fairchild in particular is a great disappointment. She had many attractive qualities as a society criminal—her engaging openness, for instance. She seemed to have a great career opening before her. But perhaps she is not wholly lost. Mr. Harris turns out to be a writer of fiction for the magazines, and we may meet her again. We are not informed what name Mr. Harris writes under, but we are sure we have read his stories. They are exactly like this one, in that they always break down at the end.

MINES AND RAILROADS.

The attitude of the British coal miners is similar to that of the American railroad men just as their recent history is similar. The British government to meet war exigencies, took over the mines and then subsidized them, as the United States government took over and subsidized the railroads. When the British government relinquished control of the mines, the workers demanded their nationalization, just as American railroad workers demanded nationalization of their industry when it reverted to private ownership. The British mine owners found, when they resumed control of their properties, that they could not continue the high wages established by the government, especially in a time of deflation and falling prices. The American railroads have discovered the same thing. In both cases the employees refuse to accept reductions.

The only important difference is that the British miners have been more prompt and vigorous in voicing their protest against proposed reductions than the American railroad men have been. There is danger, however, that the latter will follow the British example.

In both countries the workers, in these and other industries, have got to realize that there cannot be lower prices without lower wages all around, and that lower wages, justly applied, will assure cheaper living to such an extent that they will lose nothing. It is merely a question of working out the re-adjustment scientifically and fairly, and it is surely not necessary to strike and destroy mines or ruin railroads in the process.

THE RECALL IN NORTH DAKOTA.

Few measures ever submitted to American voters have met with opposition more violent than that which first greeted the proposal for the recall of elected officials by popular vote. It was characterized as altogether un-American, as frankly and openly socialistic, and as the opening wedge for government by the mob rather than by the majority.

Now, oddly enough the recall is being used in North Dakota in the effort to overthrow the semi-socialistic Non-Partisan League, and the classes which, half a dozen years ago, were most bitter in their condemnation of the scheme, are backing the move.

Political factions opposed to the Non-Partisan League are out to oust Governor Lynn G. Frazier, Attorney General William Lemke and the commissioner of agriculture, John N. Hagen, and they are attempting for the first time the use of this novel device for exercising the will of the people upon a governor or other high state official.

The brain child of the socialistic regime, placed on the statute books by the non-partisans, now threatens to destroy its parent, according to the declaration of one of the leaders in the fight, and news dispatches from the district indicate that his hopes are very likely to be realized. The state's financial difficulties have militated against the popularity of the party in power. In any case, whatever the result of the election it will be easy for the winners to quote the old saw that the cure for the ills of democracy is more democracy.

President Harding has scrapped the League but the salvage ought to at least defray some of the expenses of its manufacture.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt has urged women voters of the necessity of assuming an active part in political affairs, and while we do not want to be catty, it would seem that it would be hard to find anyone better able to tell just how it is done.

It is presupposed that the Knox plan for peace will receive a few knocks before it is finally passed.

GERMAN EXPORTS TAXED 50 PER CENT

Paris, April 15.—After a bitter debate the chamber of deputies voted by overwhelming majority in favor of a fifty percent tax on German exports. The vote was 383 to 77.

The opponents put up a stubborn battle against the tax on the ground that France needs Germany's products and that by such a formidable tax the French people were indirectly paying the German war debt.

Practical Business Talks

MAKING MONEY.

There is a great deal of foolish hypocrisy about the idea of making money.

It seems fashionable to slur at the man who is successful in making money.

We are prone to think of money as having a taint, and of riches as of being in some vague way connected with dishonor.

Of course there is such a thing as the missuses of money, and the crude, vulgar love of money in itself may be, in fact, the root of all evil.

But, after all, money is a pretty fair measure of ability. To earn and to save money requires sterling traits of character. Money is the symbol of work accomplishment—work of the brain and work of the hand. It is the reward of service to the community.

Money alone sets the world in motion. Money makes possible nearly everything in life one counts desirable.

Most of the men of great wealth in America were born poor. They acquired their wealth through service—by doing something which the world wanted done.

They had courage and wisdom and energy. And the world is a better place to live in because they lived and thought and worked and dreamed.

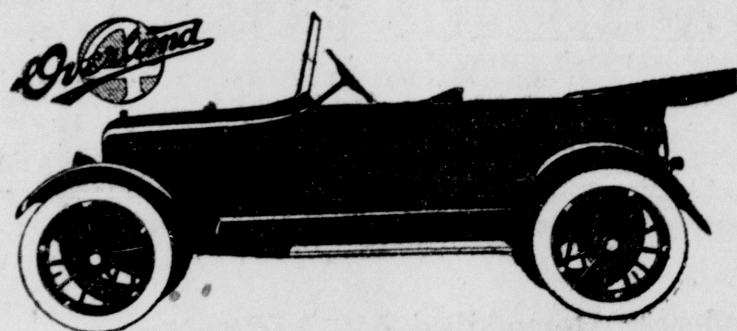

Do not sneer at the honest millionaire. There are many honest millionaires. And by all means do not be hypocritical about money. It is easy to waste money and to spend it heedlessly, but it requires ability to earn it and to keep it and to keep it working.

Success is measured in money; failure is indicated by the lack of it.

THE NEW ERA.

Two ladies by the western sea shot up two geezers as they died; and when I heard I said, "Aw, chee, they'll be acquitted when they're tried, for they are smooth as dames can be, so fair of face and starry-eyed." For I grew up in ancient days when men thought women free from guile; and if they murdered vagrant jays, 'twas just their harmless, giddy style; as jurymen we met their gaze and wilted in their genial smile. No man could hope to make a hit who'd put a lady in distress; we always voted to acquit 'em though her crime she might confess; we were such knights, you must admit, as used to ride in sheet iron dress. Alas, the world has changed since then, our attitude no more survives; the women go and vote like men, men are but equal with their wives; and these two females in the pen must spend the balance of their lives. And they are not old shriveled crones all out of date and down at heel, not hanks of hair and rags and bones, but of an age to dance a reel; and yet in fierce and strident tones the jurors sprung their "Guilty" spiel. The jurors all were weary guys to whom the suffrage stuff was new; they thought, "We've seen our wives arise, demanding everything in view; they're bound to have their share of pies, and they must take the soup-bones too."

CITY POSTPONES IMPROVEMENTS FOR DODDS ADDITION

Charles A. Kelble, urging the City Commissioners to take action on providing the improvement for the Dodds addition at the meeting held Thursday night, told the Commissioners that a number of lot owners in the addition, were contemplating the erection of houses as soon as the improvements are put in.

Mr. Kelble said that 12 or 14 people who owned lots in the addition are already planning to build but that no construction would be done unless the city puts in water and sewage, besides the streets, curb and gutter improvements. He said that Elmer Waddle, who owns a lot in the addition, had his plans drawn for the erection of a modern house, which he will start as soon as he is assured of the improvements.

The Commissioners dealt with the request for improvements the same as they have in the past. They said they were sympathetic with the movement, but that it was impossible to do the work now. On motion of Commissioner Whalen, the Commissioners again agreed to postpone the question.

Don't hide your freckles under a veil; get an ounce of Othine and remove them. Even the first few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the lighter freckles vanishing entirely.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength Othine; it is this that is sold on the money-back guarantee.

LANDS HUGE WHALE IN TWO HOUR FIGHT AT MIAMI, FLORIDA

Miami, Fla., April 15.—Sighting a school of whales in the gulf stream Sunday afternoon, Captain Charles H. Thompson, veteran fisherman and authority on fishing, succeeded in bringing in a 4,000-pound grampus whale after a two-hour struggle.

Captain Thompson was out in the stream with a party composed of F. L. Connable, vice-president of the DuPont powder works, at Wilmington, Del., (former Xenian); Dean Brown, of New York; W. T. Starr, New York broker; W. A. Thompson, president of the American Cotton Oil Company of New York, and M. M. Munsill of the Borden Condensed Milk Company, also of New York, when the school was sighted making toward the yacht they were on.

There were two other vessels in the near vicinity and Capt. Thompson decided to make a try for one of the big mammals. One of the whale drew near enough for the fisherman to harpoon it, the strike being made near the head. The whale sounded and sank to a distance of about 200 feet, remaining down for about 30 minutes. When the whale rose to the surface shots were fired into the big body and the whale sank again. These tactics were kept up for about two hours, the men of the yacht firing in the neighborhood of 100 shots into the huge body.

In the end the whale was made fast to the yacht. The blood from the wounds of the whale drew many sharks to the scene of the struggle and a fight ensued between them and the school of whales which was still near by.

A large crowd gathered at Elser's pier to view the catch and watch the fishermen land the whale on the dock. The body is about 19 feet long and Captain Thompson will be credited with the largest whale catch of the season.

SCHOOL PLAY IS WELL RECEIVED THURSDAY NIGHT

A large crowd at the Opera House Thursday night, was pleased with the double performance given by the Classes of 1922 and 1924 of Central High School, and featured the "Even Nite" program.

The Class of 1924, freshmen at the school, opened the evening's entertainment with the presentation of "The Corner Drug Store," a delightfully entertaining skit, which as well presented by a large cast. Principal characters in the piece were Arthur Currie, David Doggett, Robert Stevens, Victor Weaver, Thomas Conklin, Clarence Van Pelt, Walter Leopold, Ernest Jones, Norbert McCallister, Harriet Keller, Enrietta Monroe, Beatrice Stiff, Elizabeth McCormick, Mary Burtis, and Dorothy Fuller, and all of the parts were well taken.

The illustrated version of Mother Goose was both original and interesting. This section of the entertainment was furnished by the class of 1922, with Miss Louise Baldwin as Mother Goose, and a number of students taking the parts of different characters in the nursery rhymes. A quartette composed of Vernon Arnold, Bruce Ferguson, Edward Reutinger and William McCormick sang very delightfully.

"Not on the Program," a little comedy was very well presented as the finale of the entertainment. The characters were well chosen. Miss Eleanor Klernan as Ophelia Johnson and Tom Mason as Erasmus Brown, creating much mirth throughout the piece, with the interpretations of their parts.

City Solicitor J. A. Finney was instructed by the Commission to draw up the necessary papers with the Commission.

PLUMBING OF CITY BEING INSPECTED; METERS INSTALLED

The inspection of plumbing now being carried on by the water works department of the city government, is causing people to secure water meters, according to a report by City Auditor H. Zell at the meeting of the Commission held Thursday evening.

An inspector of plumbing is making a house to house canvass, looking for leaks in water pipes. He has so far found numerous such leaks, where considerable water is wasted, 14 notices being served in the first two days of the canvass.

Owners of the houses are given five days notice in which either to repair the plumbing or put in a water meter.

CITY LIVES WITHIN INCOME 1ST QUARTER

That this city has lived within its income for the first three months of the year 1921, was the statement of Kenyon Riddle, former City Manager who is now manager at Middle town, when he attended the Commission meeting here Thursday night.

Mr. Riddle said at the beginning of each year, the Commission asks for figures on the anticipated revenue and probable expenditures for the coming year.

At the beginning of the year 1921, the anticipated revenue was estimated at $46,635 and the appropriation ordinance was made for $46,370, covering the anticipated expenditures. During the first quarter of the year, or during the time Mr. Riddle has had direct charge of the city, the figures show that the city has lived within its income.

GUARANTEE SALARY OF RIDDLE DESPITE MUCH OPPOSITION

Kenyon Riddle, former City Manager here, and now City Manager at Middletown, will receive $5,000 a year while Manager of that city, whether the ordinance fixing his salary stands or is repealed.

Mr. Riddle was voted a salary of $5,000 by the Commission, an ordinance fixing the amount, and the amount was guaranteed to Mr. Riddle by a number of business men in that city. Thus Mr. Riddle will receive the guaranteed salary through the action of the "business men, even should the Commission be forced to repeal the ordinance.

Referendum petitions were circulated in Middletown by those not favoring the Commission-Manager form of government, asking that the salary ordinance be repealed. The petitions were filed last Monday. Commissioners held that the petitions were not filed in time, as Sunday was the last day of the 30-day time limit allowed by the charter. The petitioners claim that since the last day fell on Sunday, that they have the right to file on Monday.

Mr. Riddle, whose salary is guaranteed in either case, is not letting the issue worry him. He has already started his work at Middletown.

CONCENTRATION OF WEALTH IS MENACE DECLARES SPEAKER

Washington, April 15.—"The concentration of wealth in this country has reached a stage which is a menace to our institutions," declared William H. Johnson, president of the International Association of Machinists in an address before the opening session of the conference of the people's construction league here yesterday.

Johnson called upon the conference to adopt the program of the people's reconstruction league and to work for "taxation of privilege instead of poverty."

"Twenty-two thousand six hundred and ninety six millionaires and possessors of fortunes estimated to be worth approximately one hundred and thirty six billion dollars while our total national wealth is estimated at five hundred billions," Johnson declared. "America's thirty three richest people own nearly two percent of the national wealth."

"Those with incomes of $3,000 or less, subject to the income tax constituted 68.11 percent of the total number making returns of incomes last year."

"The predatory financial interests and selfish business and monopoly interests want to saddle not Ham, famous as a psychologist, deonly the cost of the war but the current costs of government upon working people, farmers, workers in cities, mines and transportation by a retail sales tax and other consumption taxes from which they hope to raise about two billion dollars."

"The program of the league as outlined by George P. Hampton, director, is as follows: "Prompt restoration of the railroads to unified government operation; legislation to control the meat packing industry; taxation of privilege instead of poverty; making our banking and credit system serve the people; control of national resources; opposition to universal military training."

"The present drive on the part of big employers to lower wages below the figures necessary to maintain the American standard of living must be watched to protect the welfare of the nation," James P. Noonan, president of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers declared.

Is It Yours?

HENRY JAMES

Henry James, American author, whose fame is growing slowly but steadily, so that in time he will be truly appreciated, was born in New York in 1843. He was the son of a theological writer of much originality, from whom he and his brother Wilried their psychological subtlety and their picturesque style of writing.

Most of Henry James' boyhood was spent in Europe, but when he was 17 he returned to America to read law at Harvard. But he soon found that literature and not law interested him. His earliest short story appeared when he was 22 years old and from then until his death he wrote a most amazing amount.

Much of his life was spent in Europe and toward the end he settled in London and lived there or at a country place in Sussex. He was so intensely interested in the World War and he felt so keenly that his own country should take part in it that in 1916 he gave up his American citizenship to show his sympathy with England's struggle. His reasons for this are beautifully set forth in his book of letters, recently published.

Biographers say that he is one of the most modern of the "Moderns" in his subject matter and in his methods of writing. It is interesting to see how the psychology of his characters absorbed him more and more in every new book he wrote. In his later novels most of the action of the story takes place in the minds of the people, yet they are always living, breathing characters to the reader. He has a delicate, way of dissecting them mentally and spiritually that no other writer has ever achieved, and it is this quality that is making him more and more appreciated.

SPRING HILL ASKS COMMISSION'S AID IN BEAUTY PLANS

Judge H. L. Smith and H. A. Higgins, represented a committee of Spring Hill residents who are interested in city beautification and its possibilities in their neighborhood, in submitting a request for assistance and cooperation of the city administration at the meeting of the City Commission held Thursday night.

Judge Smith said that residents of the section wanted to start their beautification plans by improvement of the area along the east side of Home Avenue owned by John Barnett, and the creation there of a parking space, by the planting of grass and shrubbery.

He said that workmen taking the dirt from Home Avenue previous to the paving had dumped it in the area mentioned, but that much of it was rough gravel, and that it was dumped unevenly and not graded. He asked the assistance of the Commission in grading this area, so that a top soil could be added.

Mr. Higgins endorsed the spokesman's remarks, saying that the residents of the section hoped to start the improvement work on Home Avenue and carry it on over the hill, in the hope that it might prove contagious and lead others to improve their neighborhoods. On Motion of Commissioner Fisher, and seconded by Commissioner DeHaven, Commission unanimously agreed to instruct the Manager to take the matter up with the committee with the view of assisting the beautification plans, by grading the area in question. Mr. Higgins thanked the Commission for its cooperation, on the part of the committee and of Dr. B. R. McClellan, chairman of the beautification committee and of the Chamber of Commerce, who is much interested in the work, but was not present.

Women Voters in Convention, Seek Stricter Marriage Laws

BY EDITH E. MORIARTY

Cleveland, O.—(Special)—Revision of the laws of marriage and divorce, unification of civil service laws, property rights and other fundamental problems concerning women may be worked out satisfactorily as a result of the national convention of the National League of Women Voters. The league which came into being a year ago in Chicago as an outgrowth of the National Woman's Suffrage Association, whose duties ceased when suffrage was won, has a membership extending into 2,000,000. Republican and Democratic women, 2,000,000 of them, their partisanship forgotten are banded together to win, not the vote, but by the vote, those rights which they believe women of America must have if they are to fulfill their highest duties.

There were 2,000 women in attendance at most of the sessions, coming from practically every state in the union. Daily discussion of election laws, child welfare, American citizenship, women in industry, social hygiene, unification of laws and food supply and demand occurred during the sessions. Such leaders as Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, Mrs. Maud Wood Park, Mrs. Solon Jacobs, Mrs. Richard Edwards and Mrs. Julian B. Salley and other women of note were in charge of these sessions. Mrs. Catt has been a plain delegate. No hats were permitted in the convention hall while the meetings were in progress, but smart gowns and beautiful coiffures proved that the cartoonists' ideas of a woman voter is all wrong.

The platform planks submitted for adoption commit the league to its most strenuous year's program. In the main recommendations were endorsements of legislation for the acquisition of stockyards by the railroads.

Encouragement of legitimate co-operative associations by the state leagues. Removal from women of all legal disabilities, of all common law disabilities of married women; equal property rights between wife and husband, and legislation to abolish common law marriages and require health certificates as requisites for a marriage license.

Rededication of the Sheppard-Towner maternity bill to raise the standard, physically and otherwise, of the American mother and baby by federal appropriation and federal-state application.

Federal control of food industry urged as in the case of banking and other branches of business, proposed by committee. Co-operation between producer and consumer and between farm woman and city woman to work out solution of the problem of waste, profiteering and lack of distribution.

Continued support to federal trade commission and co-operation with all federal agencies to obtain proper production, distribution and use of food.

Support of right of women to organize. The fight for the open shop is called a step backward.

A real merit system to prevail in federal service. Women should not be discriminated against.

School physical examinations. Friday, the closing day of the official program, was dedicated to Anna Howard Shaw. Reports from the Anna Howard Shaw memorial committee were given a hearing.

Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs

By Mrs. George Elliott McCormick.

Ohio's Oldest Club Woman
Eighty seven years old but still an active club woman is Mrs. Anne M. Hobson, Athens. As a delegate to the annual convention of the Southeast district at Logan April 7 and 8, she gave the report of her city federation. All delegates were allowed three minutes in which to make verbal reports. Mrs. Hobson taking all the time allotted in a speech that surprised her hearers into the closest attention because of the marked liveliness of one so advanced in years and because of the steady tone of voice that made it easy for all to understand what the veteran club woman was talking about Athens.

She is not only the oldest active club woman in Ohio, but it is believed that she may rightfully claim that title for the Middle West as well. She was the big attraction of the Logan convention, which was a notable success. The old Indian town itself furnished a most picturesque setting for the district gathering and the hospitality extended on every side by Logan club women was truly wonderful, according to sentiment voiced by every delegate in attendance. Logan has but two federated clubs. These are the Tourists and Saturday clubs with a total membership of forty.

Mrs. F. A. Sosman, Chillicothe, vice president of the district, planned a program calculated to bring all the departments of the state federation into a "close-up" review and in this she succeeded admirably.

Mrs. W. H. Sharp, Columbus, president of the Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs, was particularly well pleased with the entire meeting. She delivered her annual message Thursday afternoon at the First M. E. church and was followed by the various department heads, including Mrs. Genevieve R. Cline, Cleveland, legislative; Mrs. J. L. Selby, Greenville, scholarship; Mrs. John MacKee, Springfield, art; Mrs. Elmer J. Lawrence, Cincinnati, civics, and Mrs. Lyle S. Evans, Chillicothe, conservation.

A twilight musical was a delightful convention feature. A reception honoring Mrs. Sharp, other state officers, delegates and guests was conducted at the home of Mrs. H. E. White, who was a most charming hostess. At the White home club women were delighted with "Profit Tears," a comedy written by Mrs. W. C. Brashares, Logan, and produced by members of the Tourists and Saturday clubs.

Ohio Federation History

Miss Annie Laws, No. 2927 Reading Road, Cincinnati, one of the best-known club women in the state, is going to write a history of the Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs. This important assignment could not have been placed in more capable hands, for perhaps no club woman in Ohio has a finer grasp of club affairs. But to compile a history such as Miss Laws is to write it will be necessary for all club women who can to lend a hand to the federation's state historian. Miss Laws wants annual reports of the second convention in Cleveland in 1896, ninth convention in Columbus in 1903, eighteenth convention in Chillicothe in 1913, nineteenth convention in Youngstown in 1914 and directories for 1913-14, 1914-15 and 1916-17. These reports and directories are necessary for the compiling of the history and club women having them should promptly forward them to Miss Laws, or club women not having the desired material but having knowledge of how to get it should get into communication with the librarian of the state federation.

Women Lawyers

Mrs. Augusta Maley

Another of the fast growing list of Portias who are making good is Mrs. Augusta Maley, McJey, of Hackensack, N. J., who recently had the distinction of being the first woman attorney to appear before the New Jersey courts as counsel for a person accused of murder. After a spirited plea to the jury Mrs. Maley's client was found guilty of murder in the second degree. She is associated with her husband, Patrick Henry Maley, in the practice of law.

HEART AND HOME PROBLEMS

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a stenographer in the office of my brother and I do not go out often and am sometimes very lonely. But I have never done anything to be ashamed of and I have a good family.

Traveling men come here quite often and they are all very friendly and respectful. But there is one that I like very much. He is a handsome man of about thirty-two and he has been here quite often since I have been working. I like him. I like to hear him talk and when he comes he always finishes his work as soon as possible and then comes and talks to me until he leaves. My brother likes him and thinks he is a real man and a gentleman. He has been married, but is divorced. It was not his fault.

He has asked me to go out with him the next time he comes through here. I want to more than anything I have ever done, but I feel sure that my mother would not allow me to go. She has a mother's horror of her daughter going out with strangers. But this man is quite different and my brother thinks so, too.

Would it be wrong for me to meet him somewhere and go out with him? I am so lonesome, and I look forward to his coming so much. I do not love him, nor does he care for me in that way; we merely like each other and like one another's company.

DOUBTFUL

Since your brother approves of the man, he can do much to influence your mother. Of course, your mother is right in wanting to be on the safe side. It is dangerous to go with traveling men since so little is known of their lives and characters.

Do not consider meeting the man secretly. Invite him to your home where your mother will have the opportunity of meeting him and passing judgment. Doubtless she will see, as you and your brother do, that he is a gentleman.

I feel that I cannot caution girls too often to be careful of every friendship formed, especially with men, since future happiness hangs in the balance.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: A certain young man wants me to marry him. I have known him for five months. We are both in the twenties. My heart seems to tell me I do not love him enough to marry him.

There is another young man in my home town whom I have taken a liking to. He has a good position. I have never met him although it will be two years in May since I first saw him. He always watches me closely, especially at the dance hall. We hardly ever meet anywhere else. He is in the twenties, too.

Why does this young man watch me so closely? I really think he cares for me. If he cares, do you think he will try to make my acquaintance in some way?

I THANK YOU. Do not marry without love. It would be foolish, however, to be blind to love simply because you are worshipping an ideal. Since you have not met the young man whom you see so often at the dance hall, you cannot judge how much you would care for him upon acquaintance. If he were deeply interested in you, he would find a way to meet you. Perhaps you are a graceful dancer or it may be he considers you a pretty girl and he watches you from an artistic standpoint.

"Kitty and Kate": You are too young to go with boys.

CAR STRIKE NOW REMOTE.

Columbus, O., April 14.—The possibility of another street car strike here appeared remote today, due to an intimation that officials of the company may confer with representatives of its organized platform employees relative to a new wage agreement. The old one expired April 1.

An attractive figure is not a matter of size but of correct proportions. The stout women who are never spoken of as "stout" are those who give a little time and thought to proper corseting.

Rengo Belt Reducing Corsets give the wearer an appearance of slenderness. The exclusive Rengo Belt feature gives strength and support where the greatest strain falls—over the abdomen and hips. They have the reputation of being "the most economical reducing corsets ever devised."

Akron Citizen Says He Now Knows What Good Health Is Since Taking Tanlac.

“I never felt better in my life even when I was a boy than I do now. I give full credit to Tanlac for putting me in such great shape,” said Charles H. Ammon, 327 Union Place, Akron, Ohio.

“I know what good health means now,” he went on, “for I have been troubled in one way and another for four years. My stomach gave me all sorts of trouble and I had to be particularly about everything I ate. Why, at supper if I ventured beyond my limited diet I would be in misery sometimes all night long. My nerves were all on edge, and many a time while out on the street I would turn dizzy all of a sudden and reel and stagger every step I took until I could catch hold of something.”

“I never struck anything that fit my case until I got hold of Tanlac, and the way it straightened me out was more than I expected. I feel like I’ve been made all over again through and through. My appetite is fine and my stomach trouble is a thing of the past. I am now sixty seven years old but don’t believe there is any man of my age who can boast of better health. Tanlac is a great medicine—there is no doubt in the world about that.”

CITY TO INVESTIGATE PLANS FOR RELIEF OF FLOODED DISTRICT

The City Commission by an unanimous vote, directed the Manager and City Solicitor, to investigate all plans for relief for residents of the West End district, who have their cellars flooded with water, after members of a delegation from that section asked for assistance at the meeting Thursday night.

E. C. Swelbold, as spokesman for the committee, composed of W. E. Kearney, and E. H. Hunt, told members of the Commission that the

RAISE POND LILIES IN THEIR CELLARS

Although a leader in the movement of West End citizens to secure relief from the water that is filling their cellars, E. C. Swelbold, spokesman for the committee that presented the plea of residents of the district to the City Commission Thursday night, can always look on the bright side of any question.

Mr. Swelbold was asked Thursday night if he intended to join the "canoe club" because of the proximity of the water. "That brings up a funny thing," said Mr. Swelbold. "We had a canoe down home there for three years until about three weeks ago, and we sold it, just when we needed it most."

"You can tell the people though, that residents of the West End are going to raise pond lilies and gold fish in their cellars and we solicit their trade," said Mr. Swelbold.

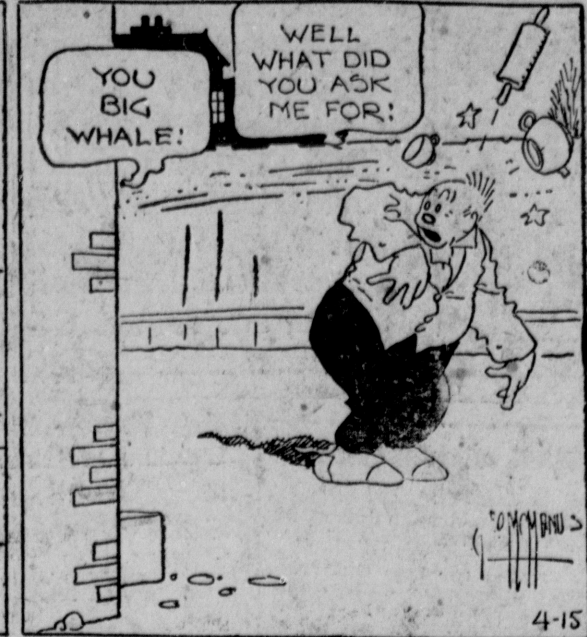

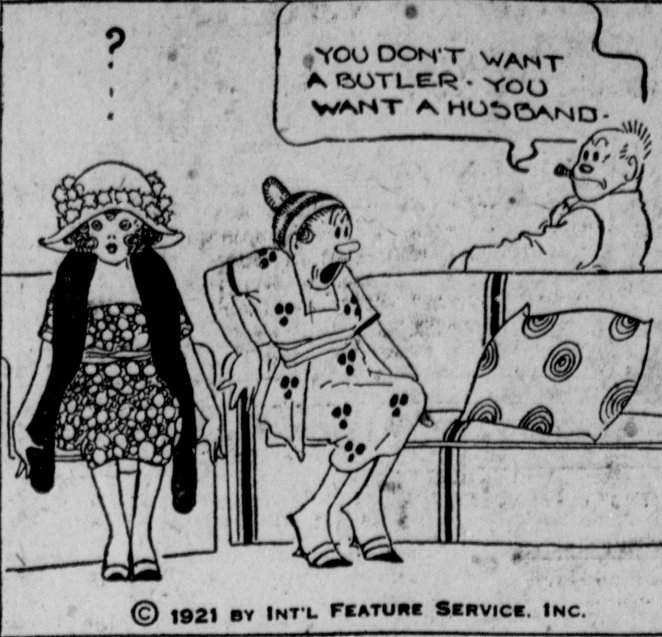

In presenting his plea to the Commission, Mr. Swelbold told the commissioners that if they did not take some action to relieve people living in the district, that the city would have to furnish all the residents with canoes.

cellars of many residents in the West End were filled with water, since the city abandoned pumping at the Cincinnati avenue water station. The water seeps through the ground, the whole district being low, and formerly swampy and floods cellars to the depth of several feet, it is said.

Mr. Swelbold said the water is four feet deep in some cellars, and Beden's mill, the West End Church, and probably 300 houses in the district, are flooded. He suggested the possibility of the installation of a trunk storm sewer running from the Pennsylvania railroad to carry the water off with an outlet in the Shawnee creek. The committee claims the water running down the Stetson Road, fills in the E. H. Hunt ground, and the sandy soil absorbs this water spreading it out through the district where it seeps into cellars.

Retiring City Manager Kenyon Riddle told the commissioners that there is plenty of grade on Bellbrook avenue to the Shawnee creek to take care of cellar drainage, and that a main sewer could be built down Bellbrook avenue to drain the area. Mr. Riddle also said that the sanitary sewers in the district investigation.

would take care of an emergency of that nature without harm as they were built for cellar drainage.

A large delegation of residents from the West End accompanied the committee and urged immediate action on the part of the commission instead of "promises." Some insisted that the Cincinnati avenue water station be started again to relieve the present flood stricken district.

SALARY ORDINANCE PLACED ON READING

An ordinance fixing the salaries of employees of the city water works department was placed on its first reading at the meeting of the City Commission Thursday night.

The ordinance provides for two office employees with a clerk at $100 a month, and an assistant clerk at $75 a month; three pump station employees, a chief at $140, a first assistant at $100 and a second assistant at $90, and two employees in the water service department consisting of a foreman at $150 and an assistant at $90. Labor, according to the ordinance is not to cost more than $4 a day. The salaries are payable semi-monthly.

A petition signed by residents of Bellbrook avenue asking that a certain alley be vacated, was referred to the Manager and Solicitor for instant investigation.

RECIPES FOR A DAY.
Deviled Eggs en Casserole—Hard boil four eggs, cut in halves and remove yolks. Mix with salt, pepper and prepared mustard and re-fill the halves. Place these in covered baking dish and set in oven to keep hot.
Now make a white sauce and melt into it one-quarter pound of cheese. Pour this mixture over the eggs and sprinkle the top with toasted bread crumbs. This makes a very appetizing dish, as well as a very nutritious one, and can be made quickly with a little practice.
Vegetable Salad—One cup of diced cooked carrots, one cup of peas, one cup of celery, one envelope of gelatin. Soak the gelatin in one-half cup of cold water for five minutes, and add two cups of boiling water, one-half cup of mild vinegar, two tablespoons of lemon juice, one-half cup of sugar and one teaspoon of salt. When this mixture begins to stiffen add the vegetables. Served on lettuce nests, topped with mayonnaise, this makes a very pretty salad.

This salad should be prepared in the morning, as it requires a little time to harden or set properly.
Uncooked Salad Dressing—One egg broken into a bowl. Add one can of condensed milk (sweetened), one cup of mild vinegar, two tablespoons of prepared mustard, one teaspoon salt. Beat these together and a delicious dressing will result. This can be thinned down as it is used if desired.
Caramel Coffee Jelly—Caramel-ize one-quarter cup of sugar and add to four cups of hot, strained coffee. Cook, stirring constantly, until smooth. In the meantime soak two tablespoons of granulated gelatin in a quarter of a cup of cold water for five minutes and add to the hot coffee with half a cup of additional sugar and a quarter of a teaspoon of vanilla extract. Stir until the sugar and gelatin are dissolved and pour into an ornamental mould. Chill on the ice and serve with sweetened whipped cream.
Apple Tapioca Pudding—Three-quarters cup tapioca (cold), one and one-half cups boiling water, one-half teaspoon salt, six sour apples, one-half cup sugar.
Soak tapioca one hour in cold water to cover, drain, add boiling water and salt. Cook in double boiler until transparent. Core and pare apples, arrange in buttered baking dish, fill cavities with sugar, pour over tapioca and bake in a moderate oven till apples are soft. Serve with sugar and cream or top milk.
DISCOVERIES
A folding wooden towel rack may be used for extra hangers in the clothes closet. Fasten to inside of closet door.
Raw young carrots are very wholesome and delicious.

The Revolt of Vera Sanderson

By JANE PHELPS.

The Pin-Pricks of Life. Chapter 16.

It may seem childish in me to relate these little happenings of the first months of married life, that life I thought was to be so happy, so free from care. But it is the little things that make or mar a woman's life. The little pin pricks that are hard to bear. When something looms large before us we somehow get strength to meet and bear it. But the everyday hurts, those inflicted by those about us, they are the ones that upset us. At least I found it so.

We all went to luncheon, Margaret exquisitely dressed and groomed, but "cold as ice," as Sallie remarked. Jack Underwood evidently requested by Keith had called her and asked her to accompany us.

As usual she monopolized the conversation. Was gay with Jack and loving with Keith, when he appeared. Mr. Underwood talked to Sallie when he could, but I scarcely spoke all through the luncheon and no one seemed to notice, not even Keith.

This ignoring of me by Margaret when we were in public, and her absolute monopoly of Keith so that he didn't appear to know I was feeling neglected was one of the hardest things I had to bear. I didn't blame Keith so much—then. She kept him so entertained, so busy chatting with her about the people, they both knew and whom I did not, that he had no time to devote to me, save to see my wants were supplied in the way of food, et cetera.

Another pin prick—I never was asked to order, not even consulted as to what I would like when Margaret was along. I mean when Keith was giving the luncheon. So when Mr. Underwood asked me politely what I would like, I "spoke right up in meeting," Sallie said afterward, and told him.

"Why not all have the same thing?" Margaret broke in. "I am sure that Chicken a la King will be delicious, then a salad, an ice and coffee."

"Good, Margaret!" Keith said laying down the menu, "but you always order perfectly."

"Are all agreed on the order?"

Mr. Underwood asked. He looked at Sallie, not at me, or I should have objected. The luncheon was delicious, so they all said—I scarcely touched it.

When we arose from the table it was nearly 3 o'clock. Too late for a matinee, Mr. Underwood said, and asked us if we would like a motor ride. Sallie said she would love to go, so I also agreed. Margaret refused. I was surprised until she said:

"I have some errands to do, Keith. Will you go with me? It is quite a long time since we have run around to the shops together."

"Yes, I think I can spare an hour," Keith replied.

I longed to say I would go with them, and let Sallie and Mr. Underwood motor alone. But I didn't dare. I knew Margaret would in some way impugn my motive to Keith, and so perhaps make him angry with me.

But I was young, the car a beauty, and so I enjoyed my ride. We did not go home until nearly dinner time—just time to dress for the theater.

I stopped a moment in Margaret's room. I told her what a pleasant ride we had had, and said she should have gone with us. While I talked I had seen a new hat box from a fashionable place, and some dainty lingerie and other things on her couch. She had evidently been looking at her purchases.

But she did not mention them, so I did not. But while we were dressing I said to Keith, who had come in soon after I went upstairs:

"What did you and Margaret buy this afternoon?"

"She bought a hat, some lingerie, and a few things for the girls. Her hat is most becoming."

"Did you give it to her?"

I don't know where I found the courage to ask the question, but I so wanted to know if he had bought her all those pretty things.

"Yes," coldly. "Do you object to my making my sister a present?"

"Certainly not! Your money is your own to spend as you please. But will you do something for me, Keith? will you go with me to select a hat—just you and me?"

"Sometimes perhaps. But you have Margaret to advise you if I cannot. With that I had to be satisfied."

The next day Margaret wore her new hat, and I am sure she would have objected strenuously had Keith bought me so expensive a one.
